Full-time | Based in the Middle East or Morocco

About Clear Reef

At Clear Reef International, we design, build, and operate world-class oceanariums and marine conservation centers. Our mission is simple: to inspire wonder, promote conservation, and care for marine life responsibly. Now, we're looking for a passionate Head Curator to lead our team and help us bring this mission to life.

What You'll Do

As Head Curator, you'll be at the heart of our operations. You'll manage the fish and invertebrate collections, oversee exhibits and life support systems, and guide a dedicated team of aquarists and technicians. Your leadership will directly shape how our visitors experience the ocean world — and how we protect it.

Here's what your day-to-day might include:

- Leading the biological and maintenance team with clear goals and a supportive approach.
- Setting and implementing strategies for conservation, animal care, quarantine, and husbandry.
- Overseeing animal health in collaboration with veterinarians.
- Managing the living collection: from acquisition to transport and care.
- Organizing exhibit renovations, new installations, and exciting fieldwork trips.
- Coaching, training, and scheduling your team to help them thrive.
- Acting as an ambassador for the Aquarium — with clients, media, and visitors alike.

What We're Looking For

We'd love to meet you if you have:

- A degree in Biological or Aquatic Sciences (or a related field).
- At least 8 years' experience in aquariums, with 2+ years in a supervisory role.
- Hands-on knowledge of fish and invertebrate care, transport, and breeding.
- Experience with water chemistry, LSS design, and exhibit management.
- Strong leadership and communication skills — you enjoy bringing out the best in others.
- A good command of English (French or Spanish is a big plus).
- A valid scuba diving certification.
- Flexibility to work some weekends and holidays.

Why You'll Love Working with Us

- You'll make a real impact in marine conservation.
- You'll work with a passionate, international team.
- You'll be part of innovative projects that connect people with the ocean.
- We offer a competitive package based on your experience and qualifications.
